We would like to extend our sincere apologies to our readers and collectors for the errata that appeared in Guernsey Paper Money. Despite our best efforts to ensure the accuracy and quality of this publication, a couple of errors were, unfortunately, introduced during the production process.

We understand that our readers refer to our work for precise information and reference. Please rest assured that we are committed to upholding the highest standards, and we regret any confusion or inconvenience these mistakes may have caused. A list of corrections is included above.
